PRSI

Your PRSI is collected as part of your tax return and entitles you to several benefits

See link to the guide to PRSI for the Self-Employed <http://www.welfare.ie/en/downloads/SW74.pdf>

INCOME TAX

Your income tax is based on your net profit also, in addition to any other income you or your spouse may have. Get professional advice from your accountant on how much this will probably be, and set aside some cash on a regular basis to help budget for it.

WHAT IS A BUSINESS PLAN?

A Business Plan is a tool to help you think out and plan your business before you start. Just as you wouldn't build a house without having a plan to work from, neither would you start a business without having a plan to direct you through the first year of business. Writing up a Business Plan takes you through a series of questions that you may not have considered but which are very important in determining whether or not you can run your business and make a profit.

A Business Plan is an essential document which will enable you to:

- Work out why you are going into business, how you will operate your business, what premises and equipment you will need, where to source your finance and who your proposed customers will be
- Present your business proposal to funding agencies and lending institutions when seeking their support.
- Assure others who may become involved with your business that you have the ability to manage and operate your affairs

A DSP Officer may use the information provided in the Business Plan when assessing the new enterprise at future meetings if you are awarded the BTWEA.

USING THIS WORKBOOK

The workbook is presented as a series of questions and is divided into four sections called management, marketing, production and finance. Set aside time to sit down and complete the workbook. If your business will involve other family members or will require an investment of family finance you may want to involve them in the planning. Answer each question as best you can. Where you are unsure of the meaning of a question or, are unable to answer it, leave it incomplete and write out your query on a separate sheet of paper. You can go through these questions later with the Case Officer at the Department of Social Protection or the Enterprise Worker assigned to you at the Local Development Company. If you already have other information that add to any of the sections (e.g. drawings, photographs, building plans etc) these may be attached to the back of the Workbook.
